CRAFTed project

Schools Information Pack 2019

'Connecting creativity and innovation through Craft'

CRAFTed is the Design & Crafts Council of Ireland's Primary School Visual Arts based educational programme. It promotes learning through creativity and innovation, placing professional craftspeople to work alongside teachers in primary schools.

It focuses on integrated learning methodologies through the Visual Arts Curriculum, using a process-led methodology that focuses on the child's own creativity.

CRAFTed is being developed and delivered in partnership with the full-time Education Centres (ATECI) across the Republic of Ireland

The key elements about CRAFTed

- Programme is based on sound education principles aimed at developing a creative, process led collaborative programme between teachers, students and craftspeople
- Building skills through collaboratively based continuous professional development programmes for teachers and craftspeople
- Delivering an active programme in schools, focusing on supporting integrated learning in the Visual Arts, (VA) and Social, Environmental and Scientific Education (SESE) curricula at primary level.
- Emphasis on craft based skills that utilize and reinforce numeracy & literacy skills
- Facilitates a continuum of learning through the development of web-based resources accessible to both teachers and craftspeople. www.learncraftdesign.ie

Design & Crafts Council of Ireland's Education Panel – Who are they?

- All members of the Design & Crafts Council of Ireland's Education Panel are professional craftspeople across a variety of visual arts and crafts disciplines with their own studio practice. All members attend training days; designed to focus on the aims and objects of craft based educational workshops
- Child Protection training for all education panel selected to take part in the programme
- All Education Panel members are Garda E- Vetted
- The focus on collaborative training for teachers and craftspeople is key to the development of working partnerships between artists, craftspeople and primary school teachers as part of CRAFTed.
